

Spoken Introduction for John Beede

(pronounced Bee-Dee)

Our speaker today is a mountain climber who has reached the summit of Mount Everest... as well as the tallest mountain on every continent, including Antarctica. In fact, more people have orbited in space than have reached the top of the 7 summits, like John has.

He has also kitesurfed every ocean on earth, been struck by lightning, trapped between warring tribes and the world's largest goldmine, and survived every classification of natural disaster.

He's been featured on 60 Minutes, Sirius XM radio, The Weather Channel, and been interviewed as a guest on over 100 podcasts. He's the author of three books, the newest is called, The Warrior Challenge: 8 Quests for Boys to Grow Up with Kindness, Courage, and Grit.

John is an incredibly entertaining speaker who has spoken to close to 1 million audience members. You're going to love this... I'm personally very excited for this presentation... so I say, let's give John Beede the loudest, longest, and craziest welcome that we've ever given to a speaker.

Seriously, let's go nuts for him. Here he is, ladies and gentlemen, John Beede.
